

William Hal Morrison, Jr., has served as a member of SAMS Post 1775 and SAMS National for 44 years. Previously, he served as Post 1775 Commander and has served as a National Councilor for many years.

Hal is retired from the US Navy and lives with his wife, Sherry, in Chapin, South Carolina. They have four children, 13 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

Hal says “Since I was last elected as National Councilor, I have helped to reduce costs for SAMS Post 1775 and SAMS National, assisted in eliminating misuse of funds and improving communications. If elected, I will continue to lend counsel to make SAMS an even better society than it is now.”
